SOUTHERN DIVISION

In re:

SCBA LIQUIDATION, INC. f/k/a
SECOND CHANCE BODY ARMOR, INC.,

Case No. 04-12515

Hon. James D. Gregg
Chapter 11

Debtor.

NOTICE OF NEW CLAIMS BAR DATE FOR TRIFLEX VEST CLAIMANTS

On October 17, 2004, SCBA Liquidation, Inc., formerly known as Second Chance Body Armor, Inc. ("Second Chance"), filed a petition for reorganization under chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code in this Court. You may be a creditor of Second Chance, and if so, this notice lists important deadlines. The Bankruptcy Court previously established April 29, 2005 as the deadline for filing proofs of claim. However, that deadline has recently been extended for users or purchasers of Triflex bullet resistant vests, and you are receiving this notice because Second Chance's records show that you may have purchased or used a Triflex vest. You may want to consult an attorney to protect your rights. You may also be a member of a class of creditors consisting of purchasers of Ultima, Ultimax and Triflex vests that was certified by the Bankruptcy Court on October 6, 2005 (the "Class"). The Class is represented by the firm Allan Kanner & Associates, P.L.L.C., 701 Camp Street, New Orleans, Louisiana 70130, (504) 524-5777. A proof of claim has already been filed by Class counsel on behalf of the Class. You may not need to file a separate proof of claim if you are eligible to participate in the Class, and you intend to participate in the Class. However, you are not prohibited from filing a separate proof of claim, and you should file a claim if you are uncertain whether one is required. If you have any questions as to whether you need to file a claim or regarding whether you are eligible to participate in the Class, you may contact Christy Fugate or Cynthia Green of Allan Kanner & Associates, P.L.L.C. at (504) 524-5777.

PROOF OF CLAIM. If you hold a claim arising from the purchase or use of a Triflex bullet resistant vest, you are required to file a proof of claim on or before 5:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on December 31, 2005 (the "Bar Date"). Each proof of claim must actually be received, with original signatures and not by facsimile, on or before the Bar Date. The proof of claim must be submitted on Official Form No. 10, a copy of which is enclosed. Additional copies of Official Form No. 10 are also available on the Internet at http://www.uscourts.gov/rules/Revised_Rules_and_Forms/BK_Form_B10.pdf. If you have already properly filed a proof of claim asserting your claim(s) arising from the purchase or use of a Triflex bullet resistant vest, you do not need to file an additional proof of claim.

All proofs of claim, to be timely filed, must be actually received on or before the Bar Date at the following address:

ESTOPPEL/BAR. Any creditor making a claim related to Triflex bullet resistant vests who is required to file a proof of claim but fails to do so on or before the Bar Date, shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from asserting such claim (or filing a proof of claim for such claim) against Second Chance or Second Chance's property, and Second Chance and its property will be discharged from any and all indebtedness or liability with respect to such claim ("Barred Claim"). Also, the holder of a Barred Claim shall not be permitted to vote on any plan of liquidation or participate in any distribution in Second Chance's chapter 11 case.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In particular types of cases or circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases that are not filed voluntarily by a debtor, there may be exceptions to these general rules.

— DEFINITIONS —

Debtor

The person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case is called the debtor.

Creditor

A creditor is any person, corporation, or other entity to whom the debtor owed a debt on the date that the bankruptcy case was filed.

Proof of Claim

A form telling the bankruptcy court how much the debtor owed a creditor at the time the bankruptcy case was filed (the amount of the creditor's claim). This form must be filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court where the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim

A claim is a secured claim to the extent that the creditor has a lien on property of the debtor (collateral) that gives the creditor the right to be paid from that property before creditors who do not have liens on the property.

Examples of liens are a mortgage on real estate and a security interest in a car, truck, boat, television set, or other item of property. A lien may have been obtained through a court proceeding before the bankruptcy case began; in some states a court judgment is a lien. In addition, to the extent a creditor also owes money to the debtor (has a right of setoff), the creditor's claim may be a secured claim. (See also Unsecured Claim.)

Unsecured Claim

If a claim is not a secured claim it is an unsecured claim. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured if the property on which a creditor has a lien is not worth enough to pay the creditor in full.

Unsecured Priority Claim

Certain types of unsecured claims are given priority, so they are to be paid in bankruptcy cases before most other unsecured claims (if there is sufficient money or property available to pay these claims). The most common types of priority claims are listed on the proof of claim form. Unsecured claims that are not specifically given priority status by the bankruptcy laws are classified as Unsecured Nonpriority Claims.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form (if not already filled in)

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the name of the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the name of the debtor in the bankruptcy case, and the bankruptcy case number. If you received a notice of the case from the court, all of this information is near the top of the notice.

Information about Creditor:

Complete the section giving the name, address, and telephone number of the creditor to whom the debtor owes money or property, and the debtor's account number, if any. If anyone else has already filed a proof of claim relating to this debt, if you never received notices from the bankruptcy court about this case, if your address differs from that to which the court sent notice, or if this proof of claim replaces or changes a proof of claim that was already filed, check the appropriate box on the form.

1. Basis for Claim:

Check the type of debt for which the proof of claim is being filed. If the type of debt is not listed, check "Other" and briefly describe the type of debt. If you were an employee of the debtor, fill in your social security number and the dates of work for which you were not paid.

2. Date Debt Incurred:

Fill in the date when the debt first was owed by the debtor.

3. Court Judgments:

If you have a court judgment for this debt, state the date the court entered the judgment.

4. Classification of Claim

Secured Claim:

Check the appropriate place if the claim is a secured claim. You must state the type and value of property that is collateral for the claim, attach copies of the documentation of your lien, and state the amount past due on the claim as of the date the bankruptcy case was filed. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured. (See DEFINITIONS, above).

Unsecured Priority Claim:

Check the appropriate place if you have an unsecured priority claim, and state the amount entitled to priority. (See DEFINITIONS, above). A claim may be partly priority and partly nonpriority if, for example, the claim is for more than the amount given priority by the law. Check the appropriate place to specify the type of priority claim.

Unsecured Nonpriority Claim:

Check the appropriate place if you have an unsecured nonpriority claim, sometimes referred to as a "general unsecured claim". (See DEFINITIONS, above.) If your claim is partly secured and partly unsecured, state here the amount that is unsecured. If part of your claim is entitled to priority, state here the amount not entitled to priority.

5. Total Amount of Claim at Time Case Filed:

Fill in the total amount of the entire claim. If interest or other charges in addition to the principal amount of the claim are included, check the appropriate place on the form and attach an itemization of the interest and charges.

6. Credits:

By signing this proof of claim, you are stating under oath that in calculating the amount of your claim you have given the debtor credit for all payments received from the debtor.

7. Supporting Documents:

You must attach to this proof of claim form copies of documents that show the debtor owes the debt claimed or, if the documents are too lengthy, a summary of those documents. If documents are not available, you must attach an explanation of why they are not available.
